Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church!!

The Clergy and Members of this church welcome all of you today. We consider it a privilege to have you worship with us and sincerely hope you will receive a blessing from the service.

Dear Friends, when we enter this sacred place, let our conversation with each other cease. Take time in the silence before the Eucharist begins to make the transition from "getting here" to "being here".

Let us center ourselves and focus on the reality of The Living God Who is in our midst. Take these moments to recall the troubles, achievements, and gifts of grace of the past week. With thanks for our strengths and resources, offer our needs and cares in this holy place.

Let us remember all who have lived and worshipped here, all who have brought us to this time. As the community gathers may we sense the Spirit. May we be prepared to give and to receive. May we be blessed by our time here.

Prayer(s) upon entering church:

By our presence here today, O God, we acknowledge you as the one who has created us - and the one who redeems us and sustains us. We worship you for all the wonderful things you have done. We confess our deep and abiding need for your forgiveness to set our lives right, for your wisdom to guide us each day, and for your love to fill our every thought and action. Help us this day to remember what is important and to set aside that which is not. As we share ourselves with you through prayer, and as we hear your word and sing your praises, we ask that this time be a blessing to us, and by your grace working in us, result in blessings to others. We ask it in Jesus' name. Amen

Grant, we pray thee, O Father, that we and all who meet at your table may come with true repentance, steadfast purpose, living faith, and a thankful remembrance of the death and resurrection of your dear Son; so that our bodies and souls may be preserved unto everlasting life, and we may feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer(s) before leaving church:

Accept, O Lord, the praise we bring to you; pardon the imperfections of our worship; write upon our hearts your holy word; and give us grace to love and serve and praise you all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Bulletin is intended for you to take away, to think and to pray over, and to share with others. Spare copies can be obtained from the ushers or the clergy. If you are visiting or if you are looking for a church home, please be sure to complete a visitor's card before you leave. The ushers will be happy to give you one.

From the Rector's Desk

Are you eating solid food???

"Brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations?" 1 Corinthians 3:1-3

In our second lesson for today, St. Paul finds himself having to address divisions within the church at Corinth. A further examination of the text indicates that the problem stemmed from different groups having allegiance to leaders (who had done great things), and instead of coming together and building up the church, they were arguing among themselves. Paul makes the point that when we act according to our "human inclinations" which leads to quarrelling and jealousy (among other things), we are not being spiritual.

Anyone who has been around any church long enough will tell you that like the Corinthian Church, cliques and factions seem to be a reality. But Paul goes on in his address to make the point that not only are these divisions harmful and contrary to the will of God, but they also get in the way of us hearing, understanding and living spiritual truths. These divisions get in the way of our spiritual growth!

What arguments have you had in, around, or about church? Are you still holding on to those issues? Do you still have malice and hared in your heart towards others? Do you know of, create, or encourage factions and divisions in the church? Do you allow these factions to control what you do or don't do in the church? Do you use these divisions to adversely affect the growth and development of the church and its members? Do you allow the "human inclinations" of power, pride, position, jealousy, selfishness, etc. to determine your involvement in the life and ministries of the church?

If your honest answer is "Yes" to any of the questions above, then you are challenged to realize that there is much growth and development needed in your relationship with God! Focusing on these things will also make it difficult o hear the God who says, sacrifice, serve, obey, commit and love, especially to those who have hurt us. Let us examine our lives and determine if we are infants, or if we are growing up and eating solid food!

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

From the Old Testament: Deuteronomy 30:15-20 .....Youth

Reader: A reading from the book of Deuteronomy, chapter 30, verses 15-20.

30:15Moses said, "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. 16If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. 17But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, 18I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. 19I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, 20loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 3:1-9.....Youth

Reader: A reading from the 1st Letter of Paul to the Corinthians, chapter 3, verses 1-9.

3:1Brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. 2I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, 3for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations? 4For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely human? 5What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. 6I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. 7So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. 8The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each. 9For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 5:21-37.....Priest

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And also with you.

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, the 5th chapter, beginning at the 21st verse.
All: Glory to you Lord Christ.

5:21 Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not murder'; and 'whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.' 22 But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, 'You fool,' you will be liable to the hell of fire. 23 So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. 25 Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. 27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell. 31 "It was also said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. 33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, 'You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.' 34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 Let your word be 'Yes, Yes' or 'No, No'; anything more than this comes from the evil one."

Feb 18th David & Sharon Tyus

Let us pray:

Almighty and everlasting God, who watches over us with your love and appoint our day, hear our prayers on behalf of these persons who this day and week complete another year of their earthly life. Under your guidance grant them every good gift O Lord, and make your face to shine upon them, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In thanksgiving to God...

Flowers in the sanctuary are given in thanksgiving for the natal anniversary of Ethel H. Fife by her daughter Cathy, grandchildren Crispin III and Courtney and great grandchildren Amaya and Lia.

News from the Health Ministry

February is American Heart Month and AMD/Low Vision Awareness Month

- Heart disease is the leading cause of death for men and women in the United States.
- Every year 1 in 4 deaths are caused by heart disease.
- You can make healthy changes to lower your risk of developing heart disease.
- To lower your risk: watch your weight, quit smoking and stay away from second-hand smoke, control your cholesterol and blood pressure, if you drink alcohol, drink in moderation, get active and eat healthy.
- For more information call 1-800-242-8721 or go to the website-www.heart.org.

February is also AMD/Low Vision Awareness Month

- Age-related Macular Degeneration, commonly known as AMD affects 1.8 million Americans aged 40 years or older.
- AMD affects part of the back of the eye called the macular, which is the central part of the retina (the "film" lining the inside of the eye).
- There are two kinds of AMD-dry and wet.
- There are three stages of dry AMD-early, intermediate and advanced.
- Wet AMD, also known as neovascular AMD generally causes more rapid and more serious vision loss if left untreated.
- People 50 or older should get a complete eye exam and follow-up with eye exams every one or two years or as indicated by the eye doctor.
- For more information call 1-800-331-2020 or email info@preventblindness.org.
