Welcome to Christ Episcopal Church!!

The Clergy and Members of this church welcome all of you today. We consider it a privilege to have you worship with us and sincerely hope you will receive a blessing from the service.

Dear Friends, when we enter this sacred place, let our conversation with each other cease. Take time in the silence before the Eucharist begins to make the transition from “getting here” to “being here”.

Let us center ourselves and focus on the reality of The Living God Who is in our midst. Take these moments to recall the troubles, achievements, and gifts of grace of the past week. With thanks for our strengths and resources, offer our needs and cares in this holy place.

Let us remember all who have lived and worshipped here, all who have brought us to this time. As the community gathers may we sense the Spirit. May we be prepared to give and to receive. May we be blessed by our time here.

Prayer(s) upon entering church:

O Almighty God, who hast fulfilled thy word of promise, and from thy heavenly throne hast poured out upon thy Church the gift of the Holy Spirit: Open our hearts, we pray thee, to receive the fullness of his grace and power that our lives may be strengthened for the service of thy kingdom, and our souls be conformed more and more to the image of thy Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who by thy holy incarnation didst enter our human family, and on the cross didst commend thy mother to the care of a beloved disciple: Purify our homes by thy abiding presence; sanctify all human relationships; and grant that united one with another in thee, we may together attain thy heavenly kingdom; for the honour of thy great name. Amen

O Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost didst send the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, to abide in thy Church unto the end: Bestow upon us, and upon all thy faithful people, his manifold gifts of grace; that with enlightened by his truth and hearts purified by his presence, we may day by day be strengthened with power in the inward man; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer(s) before leaving church:

Accept, O Lord, the praise we bring to you; pardon the imperfections of our worship; write upon our hearts your holy word; and give us grace to love and serve and praise you all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

This Bulletin is intended for you to take away, to think and to pray over, and to share with others. Spare copies can be obtained from the ushers or the clergy. If you are visiting or if you are looking for a church home, please be sure to complete a visitor's card before you leave. The ushers will be happy to give you one.

From the Rector's Desk

Is it really the Holy Spirit???

“To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.”

1 Corinthians 12:6

Today, we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. This feast occurs fifty (50) days after Easter (the root ‘pent’ means five e.g. pentagon - five sided shape). The Feast of Pentecost is the second most important celebration in the Church’s calendar, where we remember and give God thanks for the gift of the Holy Spirit. Today is the Church’s birthday: On the Day of Pentecost the Christian Church was empowered to share in the work and ministry of Jesus Christ.

Many people incorrectly use the word ‘Pentecostal’ to describe a particular denomination or style of worship. In a real way, every Christian Church is Pentecostal, in that it was founded and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Many people have all sorts of ideas, qualifications, and indicators by which they determine whether or not the Holy Spirit is present in an individual or a church.

If we really want to know if the Spirit is present, there is one sure test we often overlook: examine whether individuals or churches are using their gifts, skills and talents for the ‘common good’.

The scripture teaches us that the Holy Spirit is the bond of unity and love. The presence of the Holy Spirit ought to bring Christians together, and put them in line with God’s will and purpose.

The gifts and manifestations of the Spirit are intended to unify and not divide. As we celebrate the feast of Pentecost, let us seek to live lives led by God’s Holy Spirit, who enables us to be one with God and one another, and serve Him in unity, constancy, and peace.

“For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.”

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

^{2:1} When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³ Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. ⁵ Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. ⁶ And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. ⁷ Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?” ⁸ And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” ¹² All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” ¹³ But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” ¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. ¹⁵ Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. ¹⁸Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. ¹⁹And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. ²⁰The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. ²¹Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

25 O LORD, how ¹manifold are ¹your ¹works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the ¹earth is ¹full of your ¹creatures.

26 Yonder is the great and wide sea

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians, chapter 12, verses 3b-13

^{12:3b}No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. ⁴Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. ⁷To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. ⁸To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. ¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

^{20:19} When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁰ After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²² When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

NEWS FROM THE HEALTH MINISTRY:

June is Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month:

What is Dementia?

- Dementia is a general term for a decline in mental ability severe enough to interfere with daily life.

Alzheimer's is a type of dementia that causes problems with memory, thinking, and behavior. Symptoms usually develop slowly and get worse over time. Alzheimer's is the most common form of dementia. It is not a normal part of aging. The greatest known risk factor is increasing age and the majority of people with Alzheimer's are 65 and older. Approximately 200,000 Americans under the age of 65 have younger onset Alzheimer's disease (also known as early-onset Alzheimer's). Alzheimer's worsens over time.

There is no current cure, but treatments for symptoms are available and research continues. It is suggested to:

- Stay physically active
- Adopt a healthy diet
- Stay mentally and socially active

For more information call (800) 272-3900 or go to www.alz.org/abam.

June is also Men's Health Month:

The purpose of Men's Health Month is to heighten the awareness of preventable health problems and encourage early detection and treatment of disease among men and boys. Plan a "Wear Blue Day" to help spread knowledge of Men's Health Month. Men's Health Week is from 6-12-18, 2017.

For detailed information on Men's Health issues go to www.menshealthmonth.org and click on the link for Men's Health Facts, then A-Z Men's Health. For more information or for assistance in creating activities for your area call (202) 543-6461 x101.

Are you playing your part?

“Will anyone rob God? Yet you are robbing me! But you say, “How are we robbing you?” In your tithes and offerings! You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me—the whole nation of you! Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in my house, and thus put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts; see if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing.” Malachi 3:8-10
